GROWTH AND THE GREEN VESTMENTS

During this liturgical season of Ordinary Time, the weeks of the year that come after Pentecost, we use green vestments.

- Green is the color of growth.
 - It calls to mind the long summer, where the plants drink up the sunlight and transform it into energy and expansion and fruit.
 - Spiritually, God wants us to do the same thing.
 - To follow the two spiritual laws, staying firmly rooted in his will for our lives, so that when he pours his sunlight into our souls, especially through the grace of the sacraments, we will flourish and fill the world with the fruits of the Spirit: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, gentleness, and self-control (Gal 5:22-23).
- As we continue with this Mass, and as Jesus renews his commitment to us, let's renew our commitment to him, confident that although it may at times be painful to die to ourselves, it will always be worth it, if our goal is to live the fullness of life for God in Christ Jesus.
