FIFTH SUNDAY A

CHRISTIANITY HAS A FLAVOR

Flavorless Christianity is like putting sand on your french fries: something is different about the taste, and it's not something good.

Christianity

Some people have already written off Christianity as sand on the fries, as something that robs life of its flavor, but those people have either never experienced it or have only met the flavorless variety of Christian that Jesus is warning against today. Christianity, like salt, is not meant to be just any flavor.

In recipes you sometimes see the instruction, "season to taste": you check as you're cooking to see whether the taste is right. Too little and the recipe is flavorless or off.

Sometimes we have to take stock of whether our Christianity has diminished so much that it no longer "seasons" our life.

There are many ways to season your Christianity to taste. Are you praying daily? Do you read and meditate on Scripture? Do you help people expecting nothing in return? Do you try to learn a little more about your faith and share it? Let's pray today for the flavorless Christians to put some "spice" back into their Christian life, and also for all those Christians trying to be the light of world while being treated like sand in the fries. ROOF RENOVATIONS OF THE OLD CHAPEL & CCD CLASSROOM START THIS WEEK. THANK YOU FOR YOUR CONTINUED HELP AND SUPPORT!
