FEAST OF EPIPHANY A

LET US ALL BE STARS IN THIS WORLD!

Each one of us should strive be like the star that guided the Magi: a steady witness to Christ, a gentle, but clear and attractive, invitation to his everlasting Kingdom.

We are citizens of Christ's Kingdom; we are here in the world as his ambassadors.

So many people are seeking fulfillment where they can't get it:

- in their own little kingdoms of money, pleasure, and power,
- in their own web of merely human relationships, built on the shifting sands of undependable human affection;
- in their own merely earthly hopes that will come and go like a puff of smoke.

If you and I don't show them a higher Kingdom, a lasting Kingdom, a Kingdom that will infuse all those hopes and relationships and activities with a meaning that never grows old but only grows better, who will?

- Our example, our words, our actions should reflect Christ.
- We each should ask ourselves, how can we be more like Christ?
- Which relationship, habit, or activity in our life needs to be enhanced right now, so that we can be more like him, so that we can be better ambassadors?
- In our hearts, we know, and the Holy Spirit knows.

Let's ask him now, during this Mass, when we receive Holy Communion, to show us what project of home improvement for the soul we should take up, and let's ask him for the courage to do it.

We should be billboards for his Kingdom.

We should, each one of us, be like that star that guided the Magi to Jesus.

More people than we realize, people who live right beside us, are searching, and if we let our lives shine in Christ, we will help them, as the star helped the Magi, to find true joy.

REMINDER: CCD Classes resume January 14, 2017!
